

APPLICATION

The purpose of the Booth Scholars Program is to assist academically promising youth in a selected region of Appalachia to further their preparation for entrance into and success in higher education. The youth targeted are those who demonstrate a high level of academic promise, a willingness and dedication to engage in additional academic study, Web-enhanced learning, and other educational enrichment activities. Each year, Booth Scholars are selected from eighth-grade applicants in Pike County, Kentucky and Buchanan County, Virginia.

Applications must be completed and returned to the Booth Scholars Program.
